Patricia L. Woolsey-Sprinkle

Woolsey-Sprinkle - Patty, a native of Pottstown, PA, passed away at Community Hospital on June 23 as a result of cancer. Born August 28, 1945 to William and Marie Woolsey, she moved to Carmel as an infant. Patty had a 25-year career in the restaurant business including many years at June Simpson's and Anton & Michel, both in Carmel. She is remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister and dear friend to many. Patty is survived by her husband, Duncan Sprinkle; her daughters, Kelly Merrill and Peggy Lewis; her sons, Kyle Woolsey and Patrick and Daniel Sprinkle; her sisters, Mary Jo Rose and Judy Saleen; her granddaughters, Angele, Indigo and Sara and several nieces and nephews and many wonderful lifelong friends. She was preceded in death by her son,

Jason Humes; her parents, Marie and William Woolsey; her step-mother, Violet Woolsey; her brother, Patrick Woolsey and her great-niece, Victoria Morales. Patty's family offers warm and loving thanks to all the angels on Terrace West and Radiation Oncology at Community Hospital as well as Drs. Bradley and Feehan. They will be forever grateful for the love and care given to Patty during her difficult journey. A private graveside service was held yesterday, June 30 at Mission Memorial Park. A Celebration of Patty's life will be held at the Carmel Valley Community Center on Saturday, July 11 at 11:00 AM. Memorial donations can be sent to Caring for Carcinoid Foundation (CFCF), 198 Tremont St., Box 356, Boston, MA, 02116 or online at info@caringforcarcinoid.org.
